*He is not dead, this friend; not dead,
But, in the path we mortals tread, Got some few, trifling steps ahead, And nearer to the end;
So that you, too, once past the bend, Shall meet again, as face to face this friend you fancy dead.*

Seniors Reach Their Goal

Bidding our final farewell we, as seniors, look back on some of the happiest years of our lives. The time of graduation has come and we can receive the reward for our work, a diploma. With the help of our little friend, the Porcupine, we turn back the time to review some of the past accomplishments, hard work, and fun that we have experienced. So it is with sorrow that we leave this past portion of our life and look forward to an even greater tomorrow.

it to the top lot of luck next year and all that. Hope to see you around next year and this summer.

Tom Kuffel

Marge -

I'm glad I really got to know you this year (with Porcupine and all) you're a real swell girl and those Entre Nous-Knight parties were fun sharing. I hope we see a lot more of each other next year at Redley J.C. and get to share more adventures together. Be good this summer and be sure to be good (I don't know how you'll do both, but try hard). Lot of luck til next year's annual signing.

My dear Mr. [illegible]
I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much news to write at present. Margie It's really been fun talking to you during my free each periods. In fact I really missed you when you weren't. It was nice to have you and see show me all the annual pictures and tell me all the secrets. I've really enjoyed knowing you these last years, you're one of the most sincere people I know. I'm really grateful that you're going to be my musician in Rainbow. I know you'll do a good job. Remember Vic Damone's after the Prom, I really had a fine time.
I wish you all the success possible in your future years
